

I am one of many listeners of K-LOVE. K-LOVE provides Christian listeners in my community with quality programming and fills a need not met by the majority of stations in our area. It provides a positive and encouraging alternative to the programming on other stations. It would be a real shame to lose it due to the proposed rule changes regarding Lower Power FM. I hope you will take K-LOVE's positive contribution into consideration as you evaluate these rule changes.